Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF)

On October 13, 2006 Tyrone Lacour was arrested in Kilmarnock, VA by members of CARFTF and deputies from the Kilmarnock Sheriff's Department. Authorities in Durham, NC wanted Lacour for Homicide after he allegedly beat his male lover to death. Authorities discovered the victim's badly beaten body face-down in a garbage can on November 23, 2004. The victim's head had been wrapped in plastic secured with duct tape. USMS investigators from the Middle District of North Carolina's Joint Fugitive Task Force (JFTF) developed numerous leads concerning Lacour's location during a twenty-three month investigation, including one indicating that he fled to Virginia. On September 22, 2006 JFTF forwarded a collateral lead to CARFTF, which immediately acted on the new information. Within a short period of time, CARFTF identified Lacour's probable location in Kilmarnock, responded to that site, and safely took him into custody. Lacour has an extensive violent criminal history, including a conviction for Domestic Assaults, as well as a previous arrest for Homicide.

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF)

On October 11, 2006 William Adkins was arrested in Raleigh, NC by members of the Eastern District of North Carolina's Violent Fugitive Task Force (VFTF), who acted on information provided by NY/NJ RFTF. Authorities in West Deptford, NJ wanted Adkins for Robbery, Threat to Kill, and Criminal Restraint after he allegedly took an individual hostage at gunpoint during a bank robbery on March 01, 2005. During this incident, Adkins allegedly used threats of violence and death against the victim to compel bank tellers to produce funds. NY/NJ RFTF investigators developed information indicating Adkins fled to North Carolina with an associate, and that he assumed that associate's identity. Investigators continued to pursue Adkins, later identified his probable location in Raleigh, and forwarded a collateral lead to VFTF personnel. VFTF located and safely took Adkins into custody on October 09, 2006, though he once again absconded after posing bond. VFTF acted quickly, learned that Adkins fled to a female associate's apartment, responded there, and safely took him into custody. A search warrant executed following Adkins' arrest resulted in the seizure of a quantity of crack cocaine and more than $2,500 in US currency. Adkins remains in custody pending extradition to New Jersey.

Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF)

On October 11, 2006, Shawn Riley was arrested in Duluth, GA by members of SERFTF. The Mercer County (NJ) Sheriff's Office wanted Riley for firearms and narcotics charges, while the Drug Enforcement Administration wanted him for Narcotics Distribution. A previous search conducted at Riley's residence resulted in the seizure of more than one kilogram of cocaine. Investigators from the New York / New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force developed information indicating that Riley fled to Georgia, and forwarded a collateral lead to SERFTF. Investigators immediately acted on the lead, and developed information on Riley's location at an apartment complex in Duluth. Investigators established surveillance at that complex and observed a vehicle bearing New Jersey license plates exit from the garage space assigned to the target residence. After a brief rolling surveillance, investigators identified Riley as a passenger in the vehicle, conducted a felony traffic stop, and safely took him into custody. Riley has an extensive drug-related criminal history.

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF)

From October 06-14, 2006, Glenn Jefferson, Jr, Earl Arthur Lee and Calvin Jemain Dennis, all documented members of the Front Hood Crips gang, were arrested at several locations throughout California by members of PSWRFTF, investigators from the Los Angeles County (CA) District Attorney's Office, deputies from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, officers from the Los Angeles PD, and agents from the California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation. Authorities wanted Jefferson, Lee, and Dennis for Murder after they, along with a fourth gang associate, allegedly shot and killed a forty-six year old man and his ten year old son as they sat in a car in Compton, CA. At the time of the incident, the victim's younger son, aged eight, also occupied the vehicle, but managed to escape unharmed.

On October 6, 2006, PSWRFTF investigators developed information on Jefferson's location at a residence in Compton. Investigators executed a search warrant at that location, and safely took Jefferson into custody.

On October 7, 2006, PSWRFTF, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information that Lee took up residence at a motel in Inglewood, CA. Investigators established surveillance around the motel observed Lee approach as a passenger in of a vehicle, and safely took him into custody as he exited the car.

On October 13, 2006, PSWRFTF investigators, with critical assistance from TOG, located one of Dennis' female associates, established surveillance of her, and followed her to a motel in Bellflower, CA. Investigators established surveillance around the motel and in the early morning hours of October 14, 2006, confirmed Dennis' presence at the hotel. Investigators approached and ordered Dennis out of the room. After a ten minute standoff, Dennis complied, and investigators safely took him into custody. A search warrant executed incident to arrest resulted in the seizure of a handgun.

Gulf Coast Regional Fugitive Task Force (GCRFTF)

On October 13, 2006, Charles Mooney, a documented member of the Latin Kings gang, was arrested in Corinth, MS by members of GCRFTF. Authorities from Illinois wanted Mooney for Aggravated Battery. Investigators from the Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force developed information indicating that Mooney fled to Corinth to avoid apprehension and prosecution, and forwarded a collateral lead to GCRFTF. Investigators immediately acted on this lead, developed information on Mooney's exact location, responded to that target site, and established surveillance. GCRFTF personnel later observed Mooney exit the target residence, enter a nearby vehicle with another male, and drive away. GCRFTF followed the vehicle and later conducted a felony vehicle stop and safely took Mooney into custody.

On October 06, 2006, Alfredo Hernandez was arrested in Emiliano Zapata, Morelos, Mexico on a Provisional Arrest Warrant (PAW) generated by investigators from GLRFTF. The PAW related to a Murder warrant in Wheeling, IL, which charged Hernandez with allegedly stabbing an individual to death during an altercation on April 14, 2002. GLRFTF developed information on Hernandez's exact location in Emiliano Zapata, and began the process of obtaining a PAW. Agents from the Agencia Federal de Investigacion (AFI), acting with assistance from the USMS Mexico City Field Office, executed the PAW against Hernandez and safely took him into custody. AFI transported Hernandez to Mexico City, Mexico where he currently awaits further extradition proceedings.
